PART 5: CODE OF CONDUCT

YOUTH CODE OF CONDUCT

4-H members participating in or attending club, county, regional, district, state and national programs, activities, events, shows, and contests sponsored for youth by the 4-H Youth Development Program of Cornell Cooperative Extension Sullivan County are required to conduct themselves according to the following Code of Conduct.

Expected Behavior:

- All participants are expected to be responsive to the reasonable requests of the adult in charge at the time given. This includes following rules and regulations of the given event (for example: abiding by curfew).
- All participants are expected to participate in all of the planned programs, to be on time and follow through on assigned tasks/responsibilities in a manner that insures the safety, well-being, and quality of the educational experience for self and others.
- All participants will act in a mature, responsible manner, recognizing they are role models for others, and that they are representing themselves and the 4-H Youth Development Program.
- All participants will be dressed appropriately for the event. Dress will depend on the event and the guidelines provided for the event. Inappropriately revealing clothing, clothing printed with lewd /suggestive messages or promotions for tobacco or alcohol will not be permitted. If you are unsure about what is appropriate, in advance, contact the 4-H staff person in charge.
- All participants will be considerate and courteous of all youth and adults and their property during travel, at group gatherings, and during free time.
- All participants will respect the rights and opinions of others. CCE / 4-H youth development programming is open to diverse groups of youth. Some customs may be different than what one normally experiences.
- All participants are to refrain from the possession and/or use of illegal drugs, tobacco products, or alcoholic beverages, firearms and or other weapons at all times. These are prohibited.
- All participants are to refrain from romantic displays, sexual activities, and harassment either in public or private situations. These actions will not be tolerated.

Consequences - Any of the following may be used, depending on severity of the situation.

1. In mild cases, youth participant will receive a verbal warning. Adult chaperone for the youth involved in the violation will be made aware of the situation.
2. Young person may remain at the event, but may possibly be barred from a future event.
3. The parent(s) may be called and arrangements made for transportation home at the parent's expense.
4. The 4-H'er may be barred from participating in 4-H.
5. When a violation occurs at a competitive event, 4-H members may be disqualified from the contest and may be ineligible for any awards. Competition in later contests may also be barred.
6. If any laws are violated, the case may be referred to the police.

ADULT CODE OF CONDUCT

Cornell Cooperative Extension Sullivan County (CCESC) Parents/Guardians (of youth involved with CCESC programs) are expected to accept and adhere to the following standards of behavior when their child(ren) is/are engaged in CCESC Youth Development Program activities as stated here.

As a CCESC Parent or Guardian I will:

- ❖ Respect and adhere to CCESC rules, policies and guidelines that relate to specific CCESC Youth Programs and conduct myself in an ethical manner.
- ❖ Model kindness and compassion for others, recognizing all young people have skills and talents that can be utilized to help others and improve the community.
- ❖ Model and teach fair-mindedness by being open to the ideas, suggestions and opinions of others, including final opinions of judges/evaluators in all Youth Programs.
- ❖ Fulfill my parental/guardian duties, including completion of required records or reports, in a timely manner.
- ❖ Work cooperatively with CCESC Extension staff and volunteers.
- ❖ Avoid and prevent put-downs, insults, name-calling, yelling and other verbal and non-verbal conduct as well as written items (including social networking, Internet, etc.) likely to offend, hurt or set a bad example.
- ❖ Be responsible for my behavior, exhibit good sportsmanship, use appropriate language and uphold exemplary standards of conduct at all CCESC youth activities
- ❖ Respect and uphold the rights and dignity of all staff, other volunteers, and all individuals who participate in CCESC programs recognizing that people's values, beliefs, customs, and strengths differ.
- ❖ Be respectful of individuals of diverse backgrounds, cultures, and perspectives.
- ❖ Not possess, sell, offer, consume or use alcohol and/or controlled substances at CCESC youth events/activities, or attend any CCESC youth activities or events under the influence of alcohol and/or controlled substances.
- ❖ Model the importance of obeying the laws and rules as an obligation of citizenship and commit no illegal or abusive act.
- ❖ Provide a safe environment, not carelessly or intentionally harming youth or adults in any way: verbally, mentally, or physically.
- ❖ Be a positive role model for the behavior and expectations required of youth.

PART 6: ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF RISK

This form must be completed to participate in 4-H clubs and related activities...

I hereby apply for my child to participate in the 4-H club/activity indicated below to be conducted by the designated Cornell Cooperative Extension Association and acknowledge as follows:

I fully understand and acknowledge that there are inherent risks and dangers in my child's participation in the 4-H club and activities and my child's participation in said 4-H club and all its activities and use of any equipment related to such activities may result in injury, illness or death and damage to personal property. I understand other participants, accidents, forces of nature or other causes may cause these risks and dangers and I hereby accept these risks and dangers.

My child is in good health and is at or above the minimum age of 5 for Cloverbud members and 8 for regular members required to participate in this activity and is able to participate in any strenuous physical activity associated therewith.
